Fort Collins, CO 80523-4050

This scholarship provides one $1,000 scholarship ($500 each semester) to an outstanding 4-H youth who has demonstrated a commitment to service and leadership in the 4-H program. Selection is based on a person who will continue to help 4-H grow, and is intended to provide incentive for choosing Colorado State University as an institution for continued learning and personal development.

Eligibility:

1. This scholarship is intended for an incoming freshman or transfer student. Applicants must either be currently enrolled in the Colorado 4-H program or be an alumnus of the Colorado 4-H program.
2. The awardee must attend Colorado State University during the academic year of the award.
3. The scholarship recipient is also required to attend five collegiate 4-H meetings per semester and at least one-half of the activities. Failure to comply with this will result in loss of scholarship money.

Application Requirements:

Applicants must meet admission criteria established by Colorado State University and provide proof of admission prior to receiving the scholarship.

The CSU Collegiate 4-H Scholarship application must be submitted.

Selection:

The award will be determined and based upon review of academics, community involvement, service and leadership to the 4-H program. Emphasis will be placed on 4-H activities.

Disbursement of Funds:

Distribution of funds will be credited to the student's account at the beginning of each semester for the term of the award.

Thank you for your interest in the Colorado State University Collegiate 4-H Scholarship.
