The Guide Dogs for the Blind scholarship is provided by Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., San Rafael, CA. This scholarship is offered to encourage youth, who have raised a puppy for Guide Dogs for the Blind, to pursue an education in any field of study at an accredited college, university, technical or trade school. Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc. offer $500 and $1,000 scholarships; the number is determined annually.

This scholarship's purpose is:

1. To provide recognition for volunteerism at Guide Dogs for the Blind.
2. To provide recognition for personal development activities in other leadership, citizenship and community service activities.
3. To provide recognition for scholastic achievements in high school.
4. To provide incentive for further education.

For eligibility and other scholarship details, please contact your local puppy raising club leader, or call the number above.
